

Weymouth Town Slipway Annual Permit Application Form

I confirm and acknowledge that:

1. I hold valid 3rd party insurance (2M).
2. I will not permit any person under the age of 16 to use/launch my craft unless that person is under my personal supervision or he/she is in possession of a recognised (e.g. RYA) certificate of competency.
3. I understand the areas of water that I can and cannot enter with my craft and that current regulations are understood and will be complied with.
4. My Permit ID sticker will be visibly displayed on my vessel and that I will carry my ID card when using the Slipway.
5. I take full responsibility for my own actions and that of any named and/or permitted drivers and absolve Weymouth Harbour Authority from any liability for damage sustained to me, my property and/or users of my craft, damage to a third party or their property whilst accessing the Slipway, launching, using my craft, recovering or exiting the site.

I understand that failure to comply with the above directions will result in further action and could result in withdrawal of my permit to launch from Weymouth Town Slipway and managed sites.

This permit is issued subject to compliance by the holder with the regulations of Weymouth Harbour Authority and the reasonable requests of their authorised staff to whom this permit must be produced upon request. This permit is not transferable and as the permit holder is responsible for renewing it.

NOTE: 1. Inappropriate behaviour whilst afloat will result in the Permit being revoked.
2. A Permit is required for any powered aquaplaning activity in Weymouth Bay, including personal watercraft (jet-skiing), water skiing, wakeboarding and the towing of donuts, etc. This permit can be obtained from the town slipway hut when open or alternatively the Harbour Office.
